Ravensbrook Bed and Breakfast Inn

Coarsegold, California

At the gateway to Yosemite National Park

Private and conveniently secluded--this three-story inn is located on four and a half acres with 100 acres of Federal Forest surrounding the beautiful mountain property. Large oak and pine trees are complemented by wild flowers and other flowering foliage carpeting the hillsides. A large pond is located just outside our door. The hot tub/spa is located on the second floor deck overlooking the pond, the place to be on a starry night. You will begin each morning with a gourmet breakfast guaranteed to please every palate.

"What a lovely, relaxing time I had at Ravensbrook! I really feel I've been on vacation! Your gracious hospitality made me feel I was visiting a friend's home - the best of both worlds! I certainly enjoyed all the amenities you have so thoughtfully provided. Watching the deer across the meadow, listening to the frogs while soaking in the spa, seeing stars at night, and of course, the WONDERFUL breakfasts."
